

Cub Scouting Membership Development

Making sure prospective Cub Scouting families know about this valuable family resource

Sample invitation to neighborhood families:

You and your family are invited to join one of the greatest youth programs in the history of our community and our country...the Boy Scouts of America. Specifically, I invite you to be a part of Cub Scouting, for boys in first-through fifth-grades and their families.

Cub Scouting is like no other youth program. The fun and adventure that boys experience in Cub Scouting also builds character and instill important values to last a lifetime; values like helping other people, being a good citizen, and being physically fit, respectful, and resourceful.

I hope you can join us at the "Back to School Night" at your elementary school to find out more and to join the adventure that will last a lifetime! Dates and locations in your community are listed below. This is a meeting for both boys and their parents.

Sincerely,
Unit Membership Chair
